Erindale SS

about a 9 minute walk - 0.65 KM

Public

2021 Dundas St W, Mississauga, ON L5K 1R2, Canada

We are a community of learners: parents, students and staff working together to enrich the lives of all our students. At our school we endeavour to create a learning community where wonder and imagination are honoured through intellectual pursuits. Learning as a community, we come together to deepen our understanding of our responsibility to ourselves, to others and to our world. We will be a community of learners, parents, students and staff that work together to meet the diverse learning needs of all students. We foster a love for life-long learning by providing opportunities for students to be active participants in and to take ownership for their learning. Students will work cooperatively and independently to develop the Board and school character attributes in order to enhance their commitment to good citizenship.

2280 Perran Dr, Mississauga, ON L5K 1M1, Canada

At Sheridan Park Public School we believe in fostering a sense of optimism and self worth in each, individual child. We deliver one curriculum in two languages of instruction. We believe that every stakeholder (staff, students and parents) can learn every day. We foster our three R's consisting of respect, reflect and responsibility, and tie that to the Peel board's character attributes of caring, cooperative, inclusive, honest, respectful and responsible. We are unique in that we are an elementary school with a full orchestra. Our music program is enriching for all our students. Added to that are opportunities for athletics for our students. We provide extracurricular activities (teams and clubs) to foster growth in different areas of interest.

Private

1576 Dundas St W, Mississauga, ON L5C 1E5, Canada

Step through the doors of TEA, and you've entered an exceptional learning community - a university preparatory academy set in a distinctive location adjacent to the University of Toronto Mississauga Campus. Inside the school, TEA has designed an advanced communication network that connects teachers, parents, and students online to deliver an individualized, student-focused education in a setting structured to serve and meet the language challenges and cultural needs of international students. But more than that, TEA's staff and curriculum can also meet the needs of local students requiring a more individualized learning program. Graduates from TEA move on to a wide-range of programs in some of the most well-regarded colleges and universities in Canada, the USA, and internationally.
